

ROBERT F. HARNEY PROGRAM IN ETHNIC, IMMIGRATION AND PLURALISM STUDIES
MUNK SCHOOL OF GLOBAL AFFAIRS
2014 - 2015 HARNEY LECTURE SERIES IN ETHNICITY

Cybelle Fox

Three Worlds of Relief

November 6, 2014 1:00~3:00pm
Room 108N, Munk School of Global Affairs
1 Devonshire Place University of Toronto

Cybelle Fox is assistant professor of sociology at UC Berkeley. Her main research interests are in race, immigration and the American welfare state. She received her B.A. in history and economics from UC San Diego and her PhD in sociology and social policy from Harvard University. Her most recent book, Three Worlds of Relief (Princeton University Press, 2012), compares the incorporation of blacks, Mexicans, and European immigrants in the American welfare system from the Progressive Era to the New Deal. Fox won six book awards for Three Worlds of Relief, including the 2012 C. Wright Mills Award from the Society for the Study of Social Problems. Fox's work has appeared in the American Journal of Sociology, American Behavioral Scientist, Sociology of Education, Political Science Quarterly, and Sociological Methods and Research. She is also co-author of Rampage: The Social Roots of School Shootings (Basic Books, 2004).

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC – NO REGISTRATION NECESSARY

FOR MORE DETAILS ON THIS AND OTHER EVENTS IN THE HARNEY LECTURE SERIES
VISIT OUR WEBSITE:

<http://munkschool.utoronto.ca/ethnicstudies/harney-lectures/>

Contact: ethnic.studies@utoronto.ca