SPECIAL PANEL DISCUSSION

The Black Experience Project

Evidence and Policy Debate

March 22, 2018

2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Boardroom, Munk School of Global Affairs Observatory Site
315 Bloor Street West, University of Toronto

The Black Experience Project began with a central question “What does it mean to be Black in the GTA?” From there, the study embarked on a journey of answering this question in an authentic and respectful way. Launched in 2010, the Black Experience Project was led by the Environics Institute for Survey Research, in partnership with the United Way of Toronto and York Region, the YMCA of the Greater Toronto Area, Ryerson’s Diversity Institute, and the Jean Augustine Chair in Education, Community and Diaspora at York University. The study has received extensive media coverage since its completion in 2017. The panel of experts and stakeholders will discuss the main findings of the study and its impact from the perspectives of academic research, community, and policy.
