

R.F. Harney Program in Ethnic, Immigration and Pluralism Studies
2010-2011 Harney Lecture Series

Siobhan Mullally
“Diversity, Multiculturalism and Gender: Emerging Issues”

November 18, 2010 2:00~4:00pm

Munk School of Global Affairs Room 108N
1 Devonshire Place, University of Toronto

Siobhan Mullally is Senior Lecturer (Faculty of Law) and Co-Director of the Centre for Criminal Justice and Human Rights at the University College Cork, Ireland. Dr Mullally has published widely in the fields of human rights law; immigration and refugee law; gender and law. She is currently the Director of an IRCHSS funded three year project: Gender Equality, Multiculturalism and Religious Diversity in Contemporary Ireland.

Dr Mullally has worked as an adviser and consultant on gender, migration and human rights to UN bodies and to international NGOs in Timor-Leste, Kazakhstan, Pakistan, Afghanistan and Kosovo. In 2009, she was appointed to a fact-finding mission of the International Bar Association, to inquire into judicial independence and the rule of law in Pakistan. Her report A Long March to Justice: A report on judicial independence and integrity in Pakistan was published by the International Bar Association, Human Rights Institute in 2009. In 2009, she also participated in a Law Society / Connect Ethiopia Rule of Law project in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in partnership with the Ethiopian Commission on Human Rights. Dr Mullally served as Chairperson of the Irish Refugee Council from 2006-8, and was a member of the Board of Directors from 2008-9. She is the Irish representative on the Odysseus European network of experts on Asylum and Migration Law.

Among her recent publications are the book, Gender, Culture and Human Rights: Reclaiming Universalism (Hart, Oxford, 2006), and 'Migrant Women Destabilising Borders: Citizenship Debates in Ireland' in Cooper D, Grabham E (eds). Intersectionality and Beyond: Law, Power and the Politics of Location (London: Routledge; 2009). For more details on Dr Mullally's research and publication please visit <http://www.ucc.ie/en/lawsite/staff/smullally/>

Upcoming lectures in the Harney Lecture Series include:

January 27, 2011 – Massey College Upper Library

Richard Alba (Sociology, City University of New York)

"Contrasting national conceptions of integration and assimilation"

February 3, 2011 – Munk School of Global Affairs, Campbell Conference Facility

Gerard Bouchard (Sociology and History, Université du Québec à Chicoutimi)

"Managing Ethno-Cultural Diversity: What is Québec Interculturalism?"

All lectures will be held from 2:00 to 4:00pm.

For more details, please visit the “Events” page on our website: www.utoronto.ca/ethnicstudies